Having taken cognizance of the cooperation conventions between the Republic of Tunisia and the Republic of....., and of the legal texts governing higher education in the two countries,

Desiring to set the bases of a distinguished relation between their two countries, and to endorse a fruitful cooperation in the fields of research and teaching, aiming at the promotion of these two sectors in all areas representing common interest,

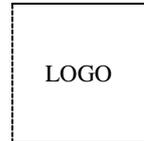

Have agreed as follows:

Article I

The two Parties shall encourage:

- The exchange of scientific information, documents, and periodicals; ¹
- The exchange of experience in fields of research and teaching representing common interest;
- The realization of joint research projects;
- The creation of jointly directed degrees;
- The co-organization of seminars and scientific events;
- The combining of efforts by the two institutions in order to investigate possible cooperation opportunities within the framework of multilateral cooperation;
- The exchange of researchers, teachers, and students.

¹ This exchange shall be subject to the regulations in force in each of the two countries and especially to those relative to copyright

Article II

The exchange of researchers, teachers, and students shall take place within the framework of short visits of (indicate the time span) subject to a prior convention between the two Parties. The sending Party shall inform the hosting Party of the precise date of the arrival of the visitors at least one month in advance.

Article III

The visitors shall commit themselves to respecting the measures and internal regulations operative in the hosting institutions.

Article IV

The sending Party shall meet the round-trip expenses while the hosting Party shall meet the accommodation and local transport expenses of the visitors.

Article V

The expenses of the organization of joint scientific events shall be met as follows:

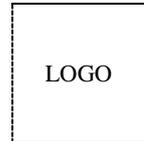

- The sending Party shall meet the trip expenses of the delegates.
- The hosting Party shall meet all the expenses relative to the organization of the event in question.

Article VI

The realization of joint research projects shall be based on a prior convention between the two Parties. This convention shall determine the financing and management modalities and the joint exploitation of the research results.

Article VII

The creation of jointly directed degrees shall be subject to a prior convention between the two Parties. This convention shall determine the goals, teaching programs, evaluation methods, value of the degrees, and the financing and management resources of these degrees.

Article VIII

The present convention shall enter into force on the date of its signing by the two Parties and shall be valid for a period of (... years) renewable by tacit agreement or mutual consent.

Article IX

This convention may be cancelled further to the request of one of the two Parties after notifying the other Party in this sense in writing three months before the convention lapses. This shall not lead to the canceling of projects the realization of which already started before the canceling of the convention.

Article X

Any dispute arising out of the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall be settled by mutual agreement between the parties. In the case of the impossibility of an amicable agreement, a joint commission composed of representatives of each party shall be entrusted with the task of examining this dispute.
